1. Interviewee authorizes Producer, Producer's agents, and Producer's designees to record his/her name, likeness, image, voice, sound effects, interview and performance (the "Recording").
2. Producer may edit Recording and incorporate Recording, in full or edited form, into the Film and all related materials thereof, including but not limited to promotion and advertising materials.
3. Producer shall retain final editorial, artistic, and technical control of the Film and the content of the Film.
4. Producer may re-edit Recording and re-issue the Film under its original title or a new title.
5. Producer may divide the Film into several independent parts that may be distributed separately.
6. Producer may use, and authorize others to use the Film, in full or in part, in all markets, manners, formats and media, whether now known or hereafter developed, throughout the world.
7. Producer shall own all right, title and interest, including the copyright, in and to the Film and Recording.
8. Producer may license the Film or Recording to third parties for the purpose of permitting those third parties to create new or derivative works based on the Film and Recording. Such licenses shall incorporate Interviewee Protections substantially similar to those below. Interviewee shall have third party beneficiary powers to enforce those protections.
9. Interviewee Protections:
  - a) Producer shall retain the integrity of the interviewee's image and voice, neither misrepresenting the interviewee's words nor taking them out of context.
  - b) Neither Recording nor interviewee's name, image, or voice shall be used by Producer in any commercial materials except in the Film itself or in materials that are directly related to the promotion or advertising for the Film.
10. The rights granted herein are perpetual and irrevocable.
11. This document contains the entire and complete agreement and may not be modified except in a writing executed by both Producer and Interviewee.
12. This agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State of California.
